

FORM LPM58

STANDARD PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT, ACT 4 OF 2013 (“POPIA) NOTIFICATION FOR APPLICANTS SUBMITTING ONLINE APPLICATIONS FOR GAMBLING LICENCES OR OTHER REGULATORY APPROVALS

In terms of POPIA, where a person processes another’s personal information, then the person or entity processing another’s personal information may only do so if such processing is lawful, legitimate and responsible and is done in accordance with the provisions of POPIA.

In accordance with the powers conferred on the WCGRB in terms of the Western Cape Gambling and Racing Act, 1996 and the National Gambling Act, 2004, the WCGRB must process your licence application and conduct the requisite probity investigation to determine your suitability.

In order to comply with POPIA, the WCGRB must provide persons whose personal information is processed with a number of details pertaining to such processing, before such information is processed. These details are housed under the WCGRB Processing Notices on the WCGRB website (<https://www.wcgrb.co.za/notices>) and should be accessed and read.

By submitting your application for a licence / certificate / other regulatory approval, you consent to the WCGRB to collect, process and retain your personal information to give effect to the Board’s statutory mandate.
