STANDARD PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT, ACT 4 OF 2013 ("POPIA) NOTIFICATION FOR APPLICANTS SUBMITTING ONLINE APPLICATIONS FOR GAMBLING LICENCES OR OTHER REGULATORY APPROVALS

In terms of POPIA, where a person processes another's personal information, then the person or entity processing another's personal information may only do so if such processing is lawful, legitimate and responsible and is done in accordance with the provisions of POPIA.

In accordance with the powers conferred on the WCGRB in terms of the Western Cape Gambling and Racing Act, 1996 and the National Gambling Act, 2004, the WCGRB must process your licence application and conduct the requisite probity investigation to determine your suitability.

In order to comply with POPIA, the WCGRB must provide persons whose personal information is processed with a number of details pertaining to such processing, before such information is processed. These details are housed under the WCGRB Processing Notices on the WCGRB website (<https://www.wcgrb.co.za/notices>) and should be accessed and read.

I, _____ (full names), ID number _____ employed by _____

in the capacity of _____ hereby make oath and declare that –

1. I have been informed and am henceforth aware that it is unlawful to participate in a gambling activity by way of telephone, telefax, interactive television, electronic mail, internet transmission or any related communications medium, except as provided for by the National Gambling Act, Act 7 of 2004.
2. I have been informed and am henceforth aware that in terms of section 84D read together with section 75 of the of the Western Cape Gambling and Racing Act, 1996 (Act 4 of 1996) (“the Act”), a person who participates in online gambling shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding two million rand or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 10 years, provided that in the event of a second or subsequent conviction, the court may impose a penalty not exceeding twice the amount of such fine.
3. I hereby declare under oath that I will not partake in any form of online gambling until such time as the National Gambling Amendment Act, which legalises online gambling, takes effect. I further undertake to educate myself on the amendments in order to ensure that I conduct myself in compliance thereof.
4. I declare under oath that I will not myself or allow any other person to use my bank accounts/cards for online gambling transactions in contravention of the current prohibition against interactive gambling nor the amended legislation to come into effect.
5. I am aware that the Board has a fiduciary duty to report any criminal activity to the relevant authorities.
6. I am aware that any further online gambling transgressions will result in my licence being revoked or not renewed and that I will be charged and prosecuted for contraventions of the Act.
7. I have thoroughly read and satisfied myself that the contents of the affidavit are correct. I understand that if any of the information contained herein is false, I may be prosecuted and convicted on a charge of perjury and/or I may be disqualified for the licence applied for, and that such licence may be refused, or, if granted by the Board, may subsequently be suspended or revoked by the Board.
8. I know and understand the contents of this declaration. I have no objection to taking the prescribed oath. I consider the prescribed oath to be binding on my conscience. I have thoroughly read and affirm the correctness of this affidavit “and swear that the content thereof is true and correct and binding on my conscience”.
